

EMPATHY SYMPOSIUM

Embedding empathy in healthcare education and practice

FRIDAY DECEMBER 7: 9AM-4PM

8.30	Tea and coffee on arrival
9.00	Welcome Professor Tracy Levett-Jones, Faculty of Health, University of Technology Sydney
9.15	Launch of the Virtual Empathy Museum Professor Shirley Alexander, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education and Students), University of Technology Sydney
9.30	Tour of the Virtual Empathy Museum Professor Tracy Levett-Jones
Plenary Speaker
9.45	What I've learned about empathy as a cancer patient and a medical student Ben Bravery, Medical Student, The University of Notre Dame
10.25	Morning tea
Plenary Speaker
10.50	Simulating subjectivity and using immersive experience visualisation to cultivate empathy Professor Jill Bennett, ARC Laureate Fellow, University of New South Wales
11.30	Introduction to the Simulation Room Natalie Govind, Faculty of Health, University of Technology Sydney
11.40	Empathic care of a vulnerable older person e-simulation Professor Kerry Reid-Searl, School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Sciences, CQUniversity
12.00	Empathic care of a person from a CALD background e-simulation Annika Ward, Physiotherapist, Monash Health
12.20	Empathic care of a person who hears distressing voices simulation Dr Fiona Orr, Faculty of Health, University of Technology Sydney
12.40	Empathic care of a larger person e-simulation Associate Professor Michelle Kelly, Curtin University
1.00	Lunch
1.50	Introduction to the Meditation Room Professor Jane Maguire, Faculty of Health, University of Technology Sydney
Plenary Speaker
2.05	Using memoirs and other forms of art and literature to elicit empathic responses Professor Margaret McAllister, School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Sciences, CQUniversity
2.45	Introduction to the Humanities and Digital Storytelling Rooms Dr Jacqui Pich, Faculty of Health, University of Technology Sydney
2.55	Stories of stroke recovery Associate Professor Gabrielle Brand, Faculty of Medicine, Nursing & Health Sciences, Monash University
3.15	Eloise's story of domestic violence Professor Tracy Levett-Jones
3.30	Iona's story of traumatic brain injury Dr Jacqui Pich
3.50	Close of the day Professor Tracy Levett-Jones
4.00	Afternoon tea and networking